
Cycling and mountain biking

Cycling in the Vienna Woods

There are many routes through the Vienna Woods which invite keen cyclists to appreciate the beauty of the forest. The wonderful, varying landscape provides ideal opportunities to explore and enjoy.

From leisure cyclists to families, culture enthusiasts to athletes in need of a challenge - the generous selection of cycle paths in the Vienna Woods offers something for everyone.

Mountain biking in the Vienna Woods

Mountain biking has recently become a popular leisure activity in Austria. In order to accommodate this development, the “Österreichische Bundesforste” (“Austrian Federal Forests”) are constantly expanding their network of mountain biking trails.
